Lending Policies

The Resource Center staff is dedicated to ensuring that our collection is accessible to individuals in Michigan working to end violence against women, as well as the general public.

- ◆ Any individual in Michigan can borrow materials from the Resource Center at no cost.
- ◆ Applications for borrowing are available online at www.resourcecenter.info or by calling the Resource Center at (517) 381-4663.
- ◆ The Resource Center ships materials to borrowers in Michigan free of charge.

Books/Other Print Materials: A maximum of 6 books and other printed materials can be borrowed for a three-week period of time. All print materials will be shipped book rate. The borrowing time includes the time for materials to be shipped to the borrower. Materials must be returned by the due date. Requests for materials will be responded to within two working days.

Videos: Videos may be reserved in advance. A maximum of 2 videos can be borrowed for a 10-business day period. The borrowing time includes any time for the video to be shipped to the borrower. All videos will be shipped first class with signature confirmation.

Renewing Materials: Print and video materials can be renewed if materials have no outstanding requests from other patrons. Renewal requests must be called in, or e-mailed in before the due date. Videos can be renewed for a one-week period and print materials for a two-week period.

Rush Requests: The Resource Center staff will make every effort to respond to rush requests. However, the Resource Center will not cover the costs of overnight mailing. Patrons are responsible for the cost of shipping materials overnight by UPS or Federal Express.

Returning Borrowed Materials to the Resource Center: Materials can be returned by mail or directly to the Resource Center (Monday-Friday between the hours of 8:30 am and 5:00 pm), before or on the due date. The Resource Center also has a convenient after-hours drop box for patrons returning materials outside of regular business hours. Borrowers are responsible for the costs of shipping the materials back to the Resource Center. The Michigan Resource Center requires all patrons returning materials to request delivery confirmation through your local post-office (this measure will assist us in tracking materials being sent through the postal service and reduce the likelihood of materials being lost in transit). All materials being returned must be postmarked by the due date. Video materials must be shipped First Class, Priority Mail, or United Parcel Service. Videos should always be shipped in a padded envelope or a box. Books must be shipped First Class or Book Rate.

Late Return of Resource Center Materials: Borrowers will be charged overdue fines for late materials. A fee of $.25 a day will be charged for each overdue book and a fee of $.50 a day will be charged for each overdue video. Fees will begin accruing immediately after the due date. After 30 days, materials will be considered lost and the borrower will be charged for the cost of replacing the materials plus an additional processing fee. Borrowing privileges will be suspended until materials are returned and appropriate fees are paid.

The Michigan Resource Center on Domestic and Sexual Violence is owned by the Michigan Domestic Violence Prevention and Treatment Board (MDVPTB). The Michigan Coalition Against Domestic and Sexual Violence wishes to thank the MDVPTB for their financial support of this project.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Michigan Coalition to End Domestic and Sexual Violence is dedicated to the empowerment of all the state's survivors of domestic and sexual violence. Our mission is to develop and promote efforts aimed at the elimination of all domestic and sexual violence in Michigan.

Our goals...

- Provide statewide leadership on public policy issues affecting survivors and the programs that serve them
- Promote comprehensive, community based social change efforts to end domestic and sexual violence and build peaceful communities
- Promote the availability and accessibility of high-quality, culturally-relevant, domestic and sexual violence services and prevention programs
- Build capacity for community-specific solutions to ending domestic and sexual violence
- Encourage the leadership of women

Member program services and activities include...

- Comprehensive, community-based, social change efforts to end domestic and sexual violence.
- 24-hour crisis intervention hotlines.
- Advocacy, counseling and support groups
- Outreach and public education
- Legal advocacy/court accompaniment
- Forensic nurse examiner programs
- Emergency safe shelter
- Children's programming

In 2012, MCEDSV statewide network of programs provided emergency shelter services to more than 60,000 survivors of domestic and sexual violence and responded to more than 100,000 crisis calls from individuals seeking support.

Michigan Coalition to End Domestic & Sexual Violence

2013 MCEDSV Annual Conference
Wednesday - Friday, June 26 - 28, 2013
Amway Grand Plaza - Grand Rapids, Michigan

Inspired.

The MCEDSV 2013 Annual Conference is a motivational three day experience that will include skill-building sessions to help us advance our social change and advocacy skills and engage in the opportunity for big-picture conversations about our shared vision for ending domestic and sexual violence. Inspired. is three wonderful days of dynamic dialogue about where our movement is headed and what it will take to get there. Brilliant and inspirational movement leaders from across the country have been invited to help MCEDSV create a memorable experience for advocates, activists and movement leaders. Speakers include:

Cassandra Thomas, beloved mother of the sexual assault movement and former President of the National Coalition Against Sexual Assault

Emily May of HollaBack!

Linda McFarlane of Just Detention International

Rus Funk of MensWork

B. Cole of The Brown Boi Project

And many more!!!

Join us for important conversations aimed at strengthening our leadership, sharpening our strategies for creating effective social change in our communities, and providing excellence in our services to survivors. Consider inviting key leaders of your staff, networks, and community to join you for Inspired., intended to engage you, your peers, and allies, and to feel awakened by critical and challenging conversations.

35 years strong

Also, join us for a special event on Thursday, June 27th, celebrating 35 years of organizing on behalf of survivors! More information included in the full conference flyer coming soon.
